MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1898.

NUMBER 43.

HANNA WAS ELECTED.

Preliminary Vote of Tuesday Not Changed.

THE OPPOSITION POWERLESS.

However, They Fought Bitterly to the Last Moment.

ALL RESOURCES EXHAUSTED.

A Proposition Was Made to Senator Dodge to Induce Him to Desert Hanna, but He Indignantly Rejected It and Did Not Waver.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—Marcus A. Hanna was elected to represent Ohio in the United States senate for seven years and two months.

If McKinley should be re-elected Hanna would still be there to the end of the president's second term.

Including both the short and the long terms, Hanna's time as senator will expire in March, 1905.

Less than two years ago Senator Hanna entered politics in advocating William McKinley's candidacy for the presidency.

He was successful as the leader of the McKinley forces at the St. Louis convention, and afterward as chairman of the national Republican committee.

For almost a year he has been in the senate as the successor of Secretary John Sherman.

During his short service in public life Senator Hanna has participated in hard fighting, but he never before won such a victory as the present one.

Factional fighting has waged among Ohio Republicans for years. Others had fought under cover. Senator Hanna came out openly at the state convention in Toledo last June and defeated Charles L. Kurtz, the close friend of Senator Foraker, Governor Bushnell and others for chairman of the state committee.

Kurtz has been a member of the state committee for many years and its chairman for the two preceding years. He was the Ohio chairman in 1895 and again in 1896.

In the latter year Senator Hanna, who was then managing the presidential campaign, was not satisfied with the work in Ohio and he did not want him in that position for 1897.

Hanna defeated Kurtz at Toledo for chairman last June, and has had a factional war on himself ever since.

Are Still Fighting.
Although Senator Hanna was duly declared senator at noon for both the long and short terms, yet the opposition continued its fight in the afternoon and is still fighting.

Just previous to the balloting Tuesday in the two houses separately the opposition was disappointed by the withdrawal of Jephtha Gerrard, the silver Republican candidate for senator.

It was thought that Gerrard would get the votes of Representatives Droste and Lane, who voted for Hanna. Gerrard's friends say he withdrew because he was being used as a means for creating a deadlock for the benefit of others.

Previous to the joint balloting the opposition offered to support Senator Dodge of Cleveland for the short term and McKisson for the long term.

Senator Dodge is a neighbor of Senator Hanna in Cleveland, and was nominated pledged for Hanna. Senator Dodge stated that the senators and representatives from Cleveland were instructed for Hanna, and indignantly rejected the proposition.

The proposition was also made to Mrs. Dodge, who was equally as indignant as her husband. While there have been many negotiations with the wives and other members of the families of senators and representatives during the past week or more, the effort to secure the influence of Mrs. Dodge was the last one reported.

The opposition knew they were defeated before the joint balloting begun, but fought to the last on the same lines of charges of bribery and coercion.

In the joint balloting there were no changes whatever in the senate over the two ballots of Tuesday for the long and short terms. McKisson received 19 votes and Hanna 17.

When the roll of the house was called it resulted in the ballots for both terms as follows: Hanna, 56; McKisson, 51; Lentz, 1, and one absent—Cramer.

The joint ballots for both terms resulted as follows: Hanna, 73; McKisson, 70; Lentz, 1; absent, 1.

The official declaration showed that Hanna had a majority of 3 over McKisson, of 2 over all voting, and of 1 over all the members in the general assembly.

While the demonstrations in the hall were the most thrilling ever seen on such an occasion, yet Governor Bushnell and other state officers were not present.

When Foraker was elected senator on the joint ballot in the same hall two years ago McKinley and Bushnell were both present, the one having just retired and the other having just been inaugurated as governor.

It has been customary in former years for the governor to be seated beside the lieutenant governor when the newly elected senator is escorted into the hall. Senator Hanna was very busily engaged in his contest last Monday and did not participate in the inauguration exercises. It is stated that no invitation or special arrangement had been made for him on that occasion.

Previous to the two houses of the legislature going into joint convention at noon for the election of a senator resolutions were offered in both houses for an investigation of the bribery charges made by Representative Otis of Hamilton county.

After the election of Hanna the house adjourned for the day, with its resolution still under consideration. Consideration of this resolution was resumed in the senate and adopted by a vote of 22 to 6.

The dissenting senators were Blake, Carpenter, Garfield, May, Sullivan and Voight, who explained that they regarded the matter as unbecoming.

The Republicans voting with the Democrats for the adoption of the resolution were Senators Burke, Cable, Crandall, Lutz, Riley, Wightman and Wolcott. There were eight senators absent or not voting.

Investigating Bribery Charges.
The committee of five, appointed under this resolution, began its work at once, but nothing additional was developed.

After the adoption of the resolution to investigate all bribery charges the Bramley bill to repeal the 50-year street railway franchise law was discussed at length, with many passages on the recent senatorial contest.

Senator Wolcott of Cleveland, in supporting an amendment to the bill, said he was pledged to his constituents to do so, and that he was not like some of the "political harlots" in the legislature who disregarded their pledges to the people.

Senator Wolcott was called to order by the chair for the use of unparliamentary language. The bill was amended and passed.

Among the representatives, during the leisure of the afternoon, there was considerable agitation of a proposition to reorganize the house by ousting Speaker Mason and all other officers of that body that had been elected by the fusion 10 days ago.

It was claimed that the 56 representatives who voted for Hanna and constituted a majority of 3 in the house would stand together for that purpose.

No plans for the reorganization of the senate are considered, for the reason that Senator Burke continues to co-operate with the Democrats, which leaves that body standing 19 to 17, as it was organized.

If Senator Burke co-operated with the other Republicans the senate would stand the R. politically and could not be reorganized.

In addition to the senatorial issues still involved in the legislature there are still reports about the grand juries and other official proceedings.

Colonel T. C. Campbell, attorney for Representative Otis, has sued the Ohio State Journal for $50,000 damages for alleged libel.

ANALYSIS OF VOTES.
How Some Democrats and Republicans Cast Their Ballots.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—The vote by which Mr. Hanna was elected on joint ballot was identically the same as that given him Tuesday when the two houses voted separately.

Of the opposition, Mayor McKisson received every vote except that of Representative Aquila Wiley, who voted for Lentz, and Representative Cramer, who is sick.

Representative Andrew J. Hazlett (Dem.) of Crawford county, who voted for Wiley on Tuesday, and Representative Charles R. Hess (Dem.) of Noble, who voted for Warner on the separate ballot, both voted for McKisson on joint ballot.

Notwithstanding the Republicans elected 75 members of the general assembly, Mr. Hanna only received 73 votes. On the other hand, the Democrats elected 70 members of the legislature and only one vote was cast for a Democrat for United States senator.

In the senate one member—Voight of Hamilton—who was elected by the Democrats, voted for Hanna, and one senator—Burke of Cuyahoga—who was elected by the Republicans voted with the opposition.

In the house three members elected by the Democrats—Droste, Lane and Kemper of Hamilton—voted for the successful candidate.

Six members of the house—Bramley of Cuyahoga, Jones of Stark, Otis of Hamilton, Rutan of Carroll-Harrison, Scott of Fulton and Mason of Cuyahoga—elected by the Republicans voted against Mr. Hanna.

Senator Hanna's name was presented to the joint assembly by Senator Garfield, son of the late President James A. Garfield, but notwithstanding this Senator Burke, who nominated Mayor McKisson, declared if President Garfield were living he would favor the election of McKisson.

After the contest had been decided Senator Hanna was escorted to the speaker's stand and spoke as follows:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Ohio Legislature—I thank you for the distinguished honor you have conferred on me. I doubly thank you as it comes as an assurance of your renewed confidence after a trial as your public servant, and I assure you I shall try to do my duty faithfully and honorably.

Standing outside the line of the smoke of battle and viewing the situation now only as a citizen of Ohio, I come here to accept the high honor which you have conferred upon me and recognizing that I am a senator for the whole people of the state. Ohio is my native state and I have always endeavored to discharge my entire duty as a citizen to aid in her development. I accept the office with a full appreciation of all the duties that go with it. I promise to be a faithful servant of the people during my term of service.

It is a Real Counterfeit.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Claude M. Johnson, superintendent of the bureau of engraving and printing, said: "In order to correct statements which have appeared in the public press to the effect that the plate from which the counterfeit $100 silver certificate was printed came from the bureau of engraving and printing or from an impression surreptitiously taken from the genuine plate, I desire to state that the most careful examinations by the best experts had been made of this note, and unmistakable differences between the genuine and counterfeit are apparent. The public are assured that this note was not printed from the genuine plate, or from any impression taken from that plate, but is entirely counterfeit."

Medium Arrested.

Greencastle, Ind., Jan. 13.—H. H. Coates, a professional medium, was arrested while giving a seance at the residence of Dr. H. H. Morrison. Coates came here a week ago from Mattoon, Ill., and was soon joined by a confederate, whom he represented as his brother from Chicago. The last of his series of seances took place when he advertised a full-form materialization of the spirits of departed friends. There were several doubting Thomases in the audience, and at a given signal they lit their matches. The medium was seized and the spirit of a colored woman proved to be none other than Coates himself. Officers were summoned and the two men placed under arrest.

A TERRIBLE TORNADO

Sweeps Through Arkansas During the Night.

MANY LIVES CRUSHED OUT.

Other Persons Perished in the Burning Debris.

SCENE ONE OF AWFUL GRANDEUR.

Fort Smith Was Crowded With Rural Visitors, Many of Whom Were Not Registered, and It Is Impossible to Ascertain Full Extent of Disaster.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 13. — Two score of human lives and upward of $1,000,000 worth of property were destroyed by a terrible tornado which burst upon this city a few minutes past 11 o'clock Tuesday night.

The storm struck near the National cemetery and tore its way through the entire city, leaving its path marked by death.

Twenty men, women and children, peacefully asleep in their homes, without a moment's warning awakened to meet a horrible death in the fearful storm, while others, momentarily more fortunate, and who escaped the fury of the wind, met a far worse fate a few minutes later in flames which soon engulfed many of the wrecked buildings.

The scene following the first terrific crash of the storm was one of awful grandeur. Business blocks, handsome mansions, hotels and humble cottages were razed to the ground and shattered in shapeless masses. Several of the wrecks caught fire and the inflammable timbers burned furiously.

The city was crowded with rural visitors, many of whom were sleeping at boarding houses unregistered. For this reason the number of victims who perished may never be definitely known.

The storm swept its way through the heart of the town. Leaving Fort Smith it bounded by Van Buren and continued down the river, demolishing everything in its path.

News from outside points is not yet at hand, but rumors of much damage as far south as Alma have reached here, it being reported that a large number of persons were killed.

Its Magnitude Not Known.

The tornado here was of such magnitude that the full extent of the damage is not yet known. It swept straight across the city, leaving behind a path of desolation and ruin.

So far the dead bodies of 41 victims have been recovered, and many are still missing. They are undoubtedly in the ruins.

The upper floor of the block on the corner of Garrison and Towsou avenue was used as a flat. The ruins caught fire from a night lamp. Seven bodies were taken from these ruins, two of them being so badly burned that they could scarcely be identified.

Burgess hotel, a 3-story brick, was demolished. There have been eight bodies already taken from the ruins. Rescue parties are still at work at both places and expect to find several more bodies.

The federal court is in session, and that brought a great many farmers here, who crowded the cheaper boarding houses and wagon yards.

George Carter's house was one of the first ones struck, and it was turned completely over and is now supported on the roof. A half pane of glass was driven through Carter's body, almost severing his head from the trunk.

The tornado destroyed two historic buildings. Judge Parker's residence is badly wrecked and the old Rector mansion, where Albert Pike passed his days, is a pile of ashes, the ruins having caught fire from a lamp.

PATH OF THE TORNADO.

It Played Havoc In Crawford County With the Farmers.

Van Buren, Ark., Jan. 13.—The tornado that descended upon Fort Smith crossed the Arkansas river half a mile south of here and tore a path 200 yards wide through this (Crawford) county, and dealt death and devastation to everything in its path.

The first house it struck was that of William Hines, occupied by a colored family, who left the house just as it left its foundation. The house was demolished, but the occupants escaped.

The next house in line was Frank Boatright's. It was a large 2-story frame house, and nothing remains of it but the floor. Boatright, a son and daughter were badly injured.

The houses of Walter Haley and Mrs. Keller were on an adjoining farm and were blown entirely away, not a vestige of them being left. The families of both were injured.

Jim Shibley's store and dwelling were blown down, but none of the occupants were injured.

Charles Wright was blown from his house and fatally injured.

Ed Blakemore was instantly killed by his house blowing down on him.

The house of Mrs. Bash was demolished and she was crushed into a shapeless mass of flesh and bone, and two of her children, aged 8 and 16, were fatally hurt.

It is estimated 100 head of horses and cattle were in the path of the tornado and were killed or injured so badly that they had to be killed.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS.

What Institutions of Learning Are Doing For Missions.

New York, Jan. 13.—The sixth annual conference of foreign missions held its second session in the Methodist building.

A feature of the meeting was the reading of a report concerning "Student Volunteers and Candidates," by the Rev. C. H. Daniels of Boston, secretary of the home department of the American board.

In part it was as follows: "This movement's field is in the institutions of higher learning in the United States and Canada, and from these institutions its membership is taken.

"Its purpose is the bringing to the attention of all students the claims of foreign missions, with a view to increasing the missionary force, and also fostering an aggressive missionary spirit among the educated leaders at home. The policy for 1898 is to visit every institution of higher learning on this continent; to make the records so complete as to be of service to the boards; to increase study classes by 50 per cent; to increase subscriptions to the 'student volunteer;' to make the coming convention in Cleveland one of power and to help solve the financial problems of the boards."

Contributions from students have increased from less than $5,000 to above $40,000.

MAY TAKE ACTION.

Railroads Conclude They Are Paying Excessive Commissions.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Negotiations are now in progress between the Union Pacific, the Canadian Pacific, the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern by which the excessive commissions paid by the four roads on Pacific coast business will be discontinued hereafter.

A Secret Marriage.

Toledo, Jan. 13.—Love won a victory over wealth when Miss Kittle Gibbons was secretly wedded to Clarence B. Ashendon of Boston. Miss Gibbons, who is an exceedingly handsome brunette of 24 summers, was a student at Lasalle, near Boston, where she met and fell in love with Ashendon. He is a fine baritone. When Miss Gibbons returned to Toledo her parents persuaded her to become engaged to a millionaire clubman of Pittsburg. Last week Ashendon was in the city to fill a professional engagement, and finding his lady love still constant, the wedding was solemnized.

An Exchange Arranged.

Washington, Jan. 13.—An arrangement has been perfected by which Charles Page Bryan of Illinois, nominated to be minister to China, and ex-Representative Conger of Iowa, our minister to Brazil, will exchange posts. There was considerable objection to Mr. Bryan's confirmation on the ground that he had no diplomatic experience and was not equipped for so important a post as that of minister to China. It is likely to be during the present administration in view of the European scramble for position in China.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Jan. 13.—The Ohavey Zion society of Cincinnati; the Buckeye State company, Leipsic, capital stock $1,000,000; the Salem Savings Bank and Loan Association company, Salem, increase of capital stock from $100,000 to $1,000,000; the National Cash Register company, Dayton, increase of capital stock from $500,000 to $1,500,000.

Cut Off Their Queues.

Upper Sandusky, O., Jan. 13.—Upper Sandusky's Celestial colony had a great big banquet. Two of their number, Henry Lee and Lee Maug, started for the festivities by calling in a tonsorial artist and paying him to cut off their queues. Then the banquet started, which did not end until far into the night.

In Favor of a Strike.

New Bedford, Mass., Jan. 13.—The vote of the Weavers' union was 655 for striking to 5 against. The state board of arbitration accomplished nothing on its visit to New Bedford, and the situation is practically unchanged from what it was before the visit of the board.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Resolution of Sympathy For Cuba Adopted. More Pensions Wanted—Other Matters.

The Kentucky House passed a resolution Wednesday morning expressing sympathy with Cuba and asking Congress to recognize the belligerency of that government. It was introduced by Mr. Lackey of Trigg. The only vote against it was by Mr. Conner of Boone.

A resolution by Mr. Jarnagan (Rep.), asking Congress to pension Kentucky volunteers in the late war and put them on the same terms as regularly enlisted soldiers, was defeated, the Democratic majority voting solidly against it.

Mr. Conner of Boone sent up a resolution asking the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform to bring in a bill reducing the salaries of all State officers and it was referred.

The Committee on Propositions and Grievances reported favorably a bill prohibiting the marriage of first cousins.

The Senate was in session only ten minutes. Gov. Bradley's appointments of commissioners of the various asylums were confirmed.

A resolution by Senator W. H. Jones, petitioning Congress to pension "home guards" of the late war, passed by a viva voce vote.

The following new measures were reported in Senate:

An act amending Section 3693, which allows trustees of sixth-class towns salaries.

An act amending the revenue law, remedying the assessment of non-resident property (requires them to file description in counties in which property is located).

The Senate Steering Committee is as follows:

Goebel, of Kenton; Bronston, of Fayette; McChord, of the First district; Sims, of the Third district; Gillespie, of the Thirtieth district; W. A. Jones, of the Twelfth district.

The Revenue and Taxation Committee of the House will recommend an improvement in the public buildings and probably the building of a new Capitol, the necessary money to be raised by a tax to be levied in the future. This committee will also recommend the consolidation of the offices of Sheriff and Jailor, to take effect at the expiration of the present term of the officers elected in November, except in the case of Jefferson County, where the change will go into immediate effect.

Joke on Fitch.

Cincinnati Post: "George H. Fitch, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was busy receiving congratulations Tuesday on his reported marriage to a Miss Grace Evans, of Maysville. Fitch, however, laughingly insisted that he is not a bridegroom. He is well known in Maysville, but says he is not even acquainted with any woman named Grace Evans. His host of well-wishing lady friends Tuesday made the situation very embarrassing to him. He says the story was started as a joke."

THE Louisville Dispatch's Frankfort correspondent says: "The Senate evidently intended to be well protected when it selected its Military Committee. There is hardly a man on it under six and a half feet tall, and they will weigh up to 200 pounds each. Senator Rammans, the largest and handsomest Republican Senator, is a member of this committee."

MRS. EMMA GUY CROMWELL, the State Librarian, settled with the Auditor this week, and gave him a check for $1,800, being the amount of money collected by her since last June from the sale of books, reports and the like. Mrs. Cromwell's term will expire next June. Mrs. Cromwell has made the office more than self-sustaining during her term, but it required hard and earnest work to accomplish this.

The next annual convention of the Kentucky Young Men's Christian Associations will be held at Maysville on February 17-20.

It is probable that a large delegation will attend from Lexington.

TOBACCO INSURANCE.—J. C. Everett.

We'll Break the Rule.

January, as a rule, is a dull month for Clothing people. We believe much of the dullness is the fault of the merchants. They labor under the impression that nearly everyone has laid in their winter supplies and fear to expend money for printers' ink. We will break the rule and see what virtue there is in printers' ink and the offer of good Clothing at about 50 cents on the dollar. Now the first thing you want to do is to read this ad. carefully; the next is to come and see the goods advertised. What will follow will be a rule-breaker.

On Thursday morning, January 13th, and until the end of the month, all our fine Beaver Overcoats—garments that sold for $10, $12 and $15, will go at $8.75.

Our finest Beaver, Kersey and Cover Overcoats that sold at $18, $20 and $25 will go at $15.

Our Cheviot and Cassimere Suits that sold at $10, $12 and $13.50 will go at $8.75.

Our finest Cheviots, Worsted, and Cassimere Suits that sold at $15, $18 and $20 will go at $12.

We need not comment on qualities. Everybody knows what class of Clothing we sell. $4.90. $4.90. $4.90

This Represents the selling price of 260 all wool Cassimere and Cheviot Suits that we recently closed out from C. Meyers & Bro., Philadelphia. Not a Suit in the lot that isn't worth $9. They come in four styles and all sizes. We believe them the greatest bargains we were ever able to offer you. Thursday morning the entire line will be in our show window. Look for the $4.90 Suit. It's a hummer.

For extra Bargains in fine SHOES, come to us. We want to close out our heavy Shoes to make room for our Spring stock. SPOT CASH will be the watchword during this sale.

The Ripley Bee Says the Ice Piers Are Causing a Sand Bar in Front of the Town.

[Ripley Bee.]

It is about time something was done in regard to the removal of our ice piers. If they remain in their present location, it will not be many years before we will have a big sand-bar right in front of our town. There is one forming now and has been ever since the ice piers were built. Our rivermen used to pride themselves on the deep water in front of Ripley and especially in front of the whariboat. But it is now the other way, and some action should be taken at once to have the piers removed, say to just above the mouth of Red Oak creek. Let a petition be circulated, and through our Congressman a sufficient sum may be appropriated by Congress to remove them, as they are the property of Uncle Sam. This matter should be attended to at once.

The Mormons, who have been preaching at Lewisburg, came up and spent three days with Mrs. Bateman last week. Mrs. Bateman says while there is some of their doctrine she does not believe in, yet they have good ways. They do not chew tobacco nor smoke and spit upon the floor.

Mrs. Maggie Crain died very suddenly December 29th with neuralgia of the heart. Mrs. Crain was a Miss Bramel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Bramel, and was a lovely Christian woman. Every one who knew her loved her and her sudden death has cast a gloom over her many friends and relatives. She leaves a husband and one child, father, mother and sisters and one brother to mourn their loss. She was a faithful and devoted mother, a discreet and loving wife, a true and sincere Christian. Sorrow seems light in the smile of the Lord. Comfort is found in his life giving word. Hope to the grief-stricken heart he will send. Trust in the Savior, our brother and friend.

There was a meeting of some of the officials and friends of the Black Diamond railroad here last Saturday. The track located after reaching Fern Leaf follows the turnpike closely on the southern side of the same, passing north of our town, then turns south through the garden of W. R. Crilfield, thence down Camp Creek on its meandering way to the sea. We can almost imagine we hear the shrill whistle of the locomotive, and the low heavy rumbling of the long trains of cars as they chase each other in quick succession to their destinations. Nearly every little town out West has its railroad; why shouldn't we?

Wanamaker's Words of Wisdom.

John Wanamaker, the great millionaire merchant, is perhaps the heaviest advertiser in the world. Speaking recently of his system, he said:

"I do the heaviest advertising in dull times. Then is when the people look most keenly for bargains, are anxious to know how much things cost and when and where they can save money. I advertise particular things; give prices and take as much pains with my announcement as I do with my stock. One big dinner won't keep up the reputation of the house, but steady, good cooking does it. I never permit interest in my announcements to lag, and never miss an issue in my chosen publications. Advertising has made my store one of the largest in the country."

There was no business other than the general routine before the meeting.

Pittsburg is going to supply a monster steel barge for St. Louis. The contract for it has just been let to the Shultz Bridge and Iron Company by the Interstate Transportation and Transfer Company. The barge is to be used in transporting freight cars across the Mississippi river. The specifications call for a boat 300 feet long, 46 feet wide and 10 feet deep at the center. Its unusual width, as great as that of most of the large ocean steamers, will be noticed. This is to allow four railroad tracks to be built on it parallel to each other and extending from one end to the other. The boat will accommodate forty freight cars and its capacity will be 1,800 tons, so that each car can easily be loaded with the average quota of 50,000 pounds. The boat itself will weigh 1,000,000 pounds, or 500 tons.

THE two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, promotes regularity of the functions, allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural, exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of womanhood are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaints." There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar disease that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

HERE'S something to think about. A man owed $1 and had but 75 cents. He went to a pawn broker and pawned the 75 cents for 50 cents. He met a friend and sold him the pawn ticket, calling for 75 cents, for 50 cents. He thus had two 50 cent pieces, $1 in fact, with which he paid the debt. Was anybody out and how much?—Exchange.

"You Don't Carry Coal to Newcastle."

An English proverb—true but applicable.

Don't Buy China at Dry Goods or Department Stores; it's Dangerous. We Study the business and claim to know it. Our stock of

Jap Goods

Just imported, is the largest and most carefully selected, consisting of the best things to be found in that beautiful, light, thin, transparent China, so dear to every lover of ceramics. Cups and saucers—The favorite Blue Ovariat set; the dainty Minno set; the famous Seiji at 17c; the pleasing Gugi at 25c, and many others. Sugar and Creams—Large sizes—Aldzu at 15c. per pair. If you don't get one of these you will miss a bargain. Tatakai at 38c.
